Secrecy helps no one in an age of information. But 2,400 years will be provided to the survivors who inherit this ‘new age’ to get used to this fact.

Get used to it!

Bullshit!

> Such bullshit. Humanity is going to die off suddenly in massive quantity, anyway, when everyone is forced to wake up to a pandemic of honesty forced upon them by Nature whether or not they want it. What difference does it make to withhold information? None.

> I don't mean any disrespect. But the truth is harsh. Only half a percent of humanity will survive the coming changes which Nature has in store for us. It's all for the best. Which is why most won't be able to handle it. They will leave, suddenly, out of the mercy of Nature.
